

A construction worker is a manual laborer employed in the physical construction of the built environment and its infrastructure. For example, laborer carries out a wide range of practical tasks to help tradespersons on construction sites.

Duties of Construction worker:

- Removing debris
- Erecting scaffolding
- Loading and unloading building materials
- Assisting with operating heavy equipment

Construction Worker Job Title:

- Construction Manager
- Engineer
- Construction labor
- Contractor

Construction Worker Responsibilities:

- 👍 Preparing construction sites, materials, and tools, and equipment
- 👍 Loading and unloading of materials, tools and equipment
- 👍 Removing debris, garbage, and dangerous material from sites
- 👍 Assembling and breaking down barricades, temporary structures, and scaffolding
- 👍 Assisting contractors, e.g. electricians and painter, as required
- 👍 Assisting with transport and operation of heavy machinery and equipment
- 👍 Regulating traffic and erecting traffic signs
- 👍 Follow all health and safety regulations
- 👍 Digging holes, tunnels, and shafts
- 👍 Mixing, pouring, and leveling concrete

