

✓ Pallet Jacks

These are used to move loads up to 5000 lbs. Its handle has a three-position system lower, raise and neutral for fingertip control.

✓ Integrated Dock Levelers

These use a hydraulic system to lift and extends as flat as possible to load between truck and a gap.

✓ Edge of Dock Levelers

These are used to bridge the gap between truck and a loading dock

✓ Truck Restraints

These help with efficient loading dock productivity and safety. Makes it more convenient for the driver to assist loading.

✓ Dock Seals and Shelters

These are designed for reducing energy loss, product damage and theft and insect infiltration.

✓ Dock Boards and Plates

These are recommended for light activity and non-power loading.

✓ Wheel Chocks

Durable chocks resists sun, salt resists sun, oil, and ozone.

✓ Bumpers

These are made of rubber and used to protect loading docks.

✓ Lights

These are swing lights which makes it easier to view darkened dock areas.

✓ Strip Doors and Air Curtains

These prevent dust flow, contaminant from loading or packages and, also help to reduce loss of heat and cold.

✓ Utility Carts

These are used to transport tools and utilities within the premises.

✓ Trucks

These vary from steel, wooden, aluminum, or plastic work trucks and are used to move items to the loading deck or heavy motor vehicle.

